CLASS HISTORY

After eleven happy years at Bartlett Yancey School we assembled on the twenty-ninth of August to resume our studies as seniors. Thirty-one of our original class members and one new member, Joe D. Morton, began the year. Later, Anne Ashmore joined our class giving us a total of thirty-three members.

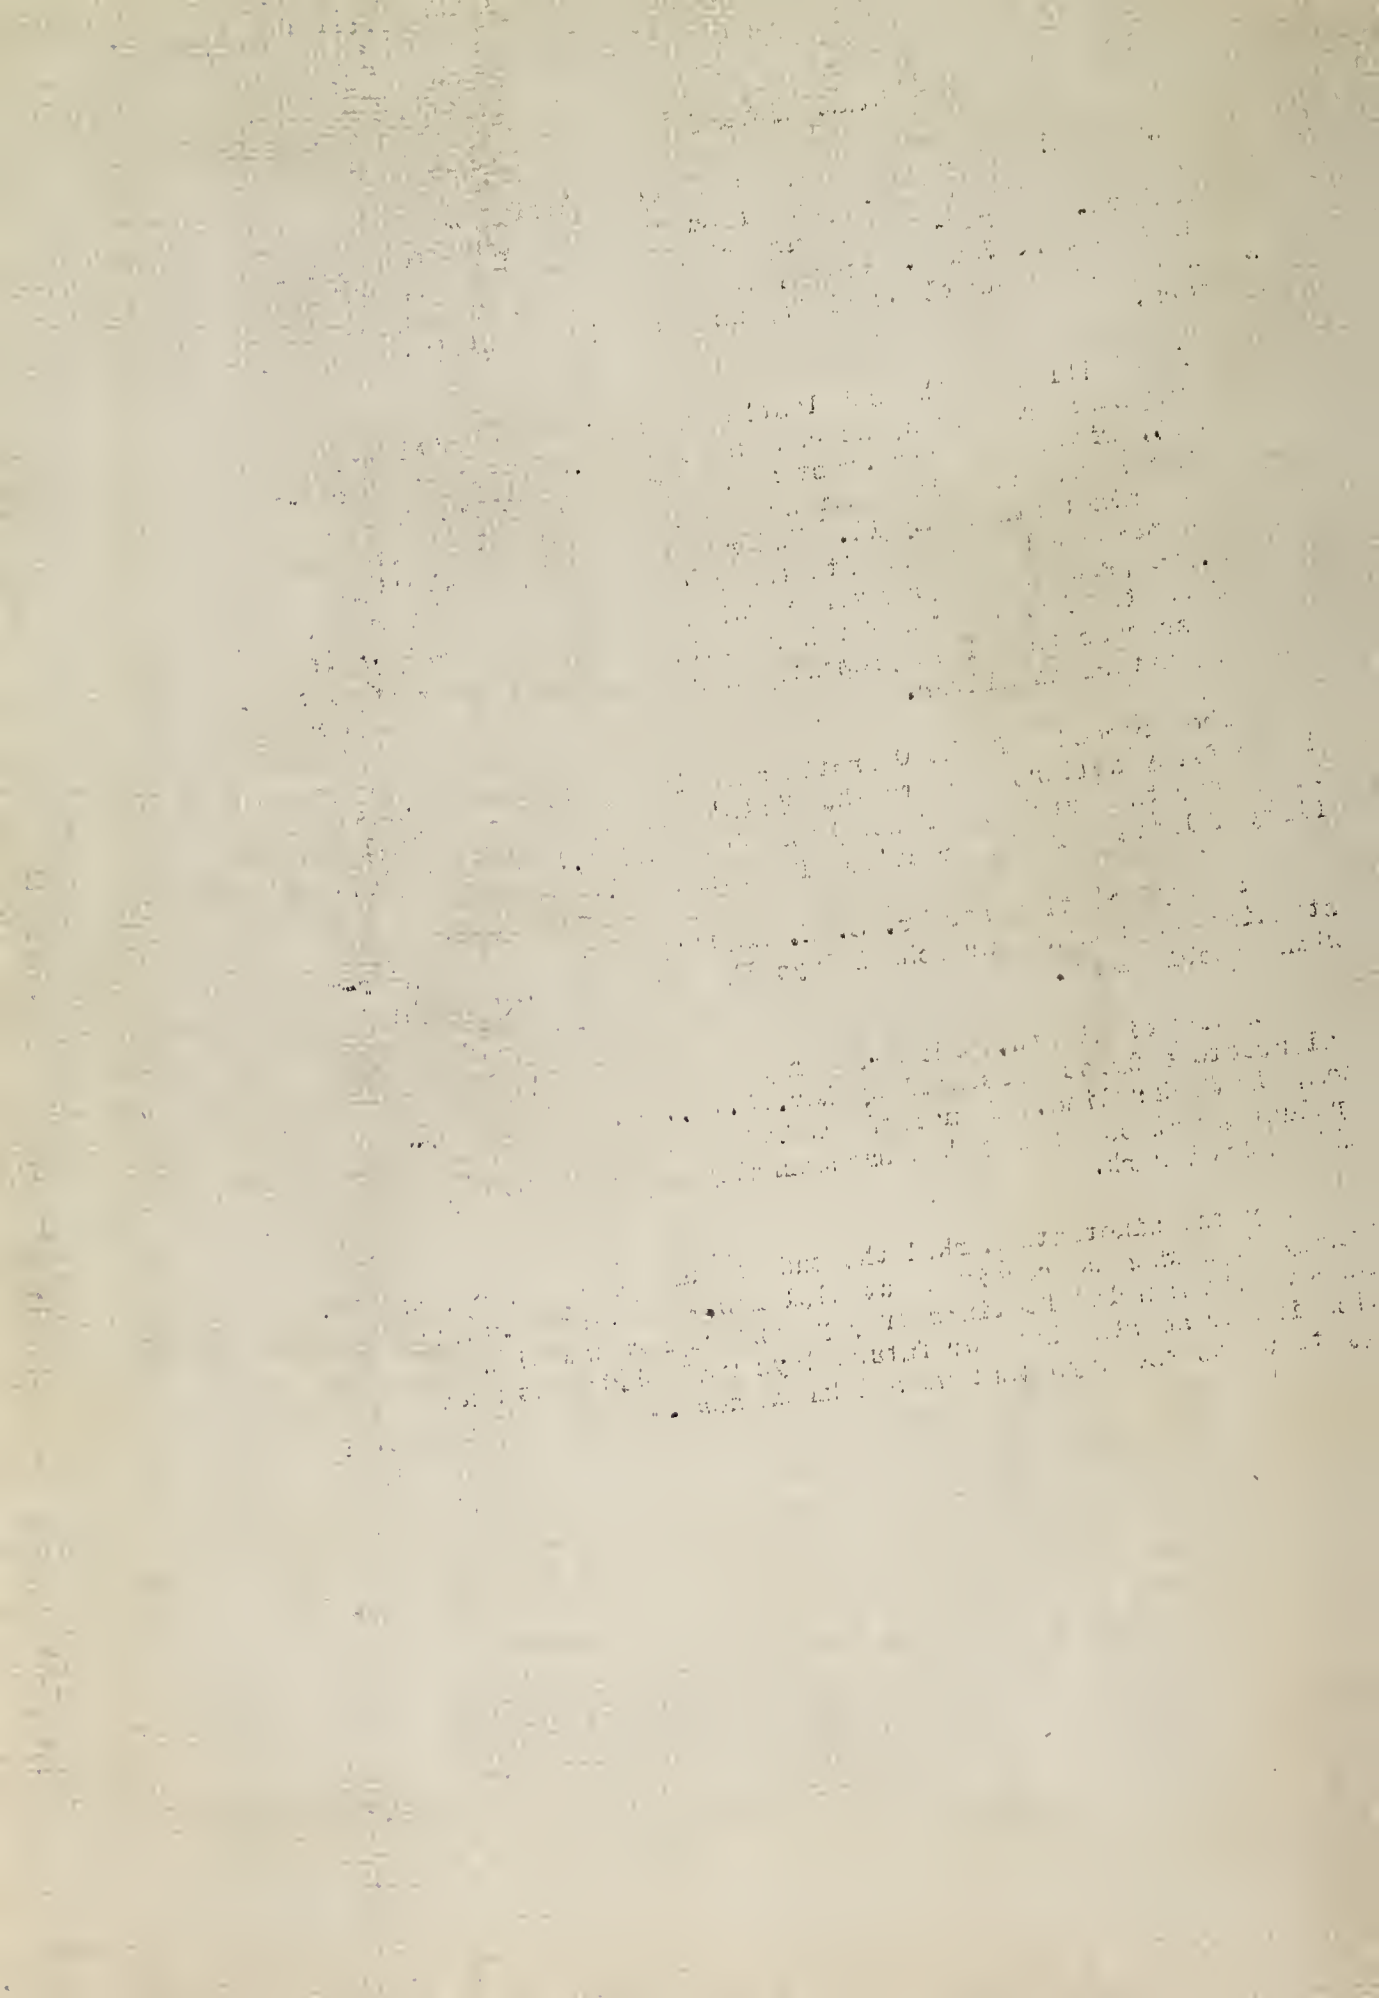

In addition to the scholastic and social activities of the busy seniors they sponsored an operetta. "The Gypsy Troubadour", written by Effa Preston and Don Wilson, was presented to a large and attentive audience on the nights of the eighteenth and nineteenth of April. Under the excellent direction of Miss Gretchen Webster and with the splendid cooperation of the class, we presented a program of which we were very proud. In gratitude to Miss Webster for her assistance in making our operetta a success the class presented her with four pieces of her chosen pattern in silver.

The proceeds of the Operetta made it possible for us to leave fifty dollars each to the Girls' and Boys' Basketball Teams for the purchase of new basketball suits. We also left fifty dollars for the erection of a memorial.

In appreciation for Mr. S. H. Abell's guidance and understanding throughout our school days the class presented him with a table lamp.

On May eighteenth, thirty-seven seniors enjoyed a baccalaureate address presented by Rev. J. G. Phillips of Durham, North Carolina. Four members had been added to our graduating class as they had successfully completed their high school work.

May the nineteenth marked the end of our days at Bartlett Yancey High when we received our diplomas. We left Bartlett Yancey with mingled feelings of joy and regret and with a wish in our hearts that our future days would bring as much joy to us as the days that we had known here.

CLASS MOTTO: "With the ropes of yesterday, let us ring
the bells of tomorrow."

CLASS FLOWER: Rose

CLASS COLORS: Red and white

CLASS SONGS: By Nancy Mize

Tune: The Bells of Saint Mary

How often we think of the years that have passed,
Our high school is over and we leave at last;
And when we have gone let us go where we may,
Still deep in our hearts these fond memories will stay.

Chorus:

With tears in our hearts and with plans for the future,
We choose this dear moment to bid you adieu;
Thanks to our kind teachers and friends who have helped us,
Oh, Bartlett Yancey High, we will remember you.

SOCIALS OF CLASS OF 47

A Halloween Party was given for the class on October 31, 1944 in Betsy Foster's barn, which was decorated in typical Halloween style. A wonderful time was had by all.

On May 4, 1945 the Juniors entertained the Seniors with a Junior-Senior Banquet in the auditorium of our school. The decorations were in blue and white in keeping with the May Day Theme. A May Pole centered the room with blue and white streamers.

A dance followed the banquet at the Club House where everyone had a most enjoyable time.

On Friday night April 16, 1946 the girls of the eleventh grade gave a weiner roast and dance at the Club House in honor of the boys of their class.

Everyone enjoyed the weiner roast which was on the grounds. As the sun sank behind the hills and the weiners disappeared the guests went inside the Club House in answer to the strains of music coming through the windows.

Flowers and streamers of school colors, purple and gold, decorated the Club House.

The class had a formal dance on July 5, 1946 at the Club House at which quite a number were present. The color scheme was carried out in red and white.

The Seniors sponsored an informal dance at the Club House, December 28, 1946 which was one of the highlights of the holiday season. Everyone seemed to enjoy it as much or more than any social given by the group in many months. The Club House was decorated with red and white streamers and evergreen accented by candlelight and fires in huge fireplaces. A prize was given to the cutest couple.

The Junior Class of Bartlett Yancey High School entertained the Senior Class at a banquet given on Friday night, April 11, at Denville Country Club. A dance to which additional guests were invited followed the banquet.

The decorations were centered around the theme, "The Garden of Tomorrow," which was very beautiful.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

2. The second section covers the process of reconciling accounts. It explains how to compare the internal records with the bank statements to identify any discrepancies. Regular reconciliation helps in catching errors early and prevents them from escalating.

3. The third part of the document addresses the issue of budgeting. It provides guidelines on how to set realistic financial goals and allocate resources accordingly. A well-defined budget is essential for controlling expenses and ensuring the organization stays on track.

4. The fourth section discusses the role of technology in financial management. It highlights the benefits of using accounting software to streamline processes, reduce manual errors, and provide real-time insights into the company's financial health.

5. The final part of the document focuses on compliance and reporting. It outlines the various regulations that must be followed and the importance of preparing accurate financial statements for stakeholders. Consistent reporting is key to building trust and maintaining a good reputation.

VALEDICTORY

The job of your personality is to attract, not to repel. You should learn something from every great personality with whom you come in contact. If your friend has "the blues," turn on the sunshine.

Do not always judge a pump by the squeaks it makes, nor likewise a chance acquaintance by first impression. Keep drawing out to find the deeper treasures of a rich personality of your acquaintance as you would keep drawing to find pure water from a well.

You should possess an urge so overwhelming that you can not resist it. This urge should be a "Magnificent Obsession" that wakes you in the morning with a desire to serve that cannot be put aside; something that sends you into any group, not with thought of "what can I get out of them" but rather "what can I give?"

Why not live in the presence of the best? Why not live a distinguished life? I dare you to surround yourself with the very best the world has to offer.

One should give his loyalty to the Living Leader and then express that loyalty in knightly service. Real religion dreams and sees visions that intoxicate with deeds of kindness, justice, chivalry, and love.

We advance only by doing. "What you are to be, you are now becoming." The kind of character you have is your trademark. Your trademark will have a decided effect upon your capital.

"Stand Tall". "Think Tall". If you are in a good physical condition and a good mental condition you will have sufficient strength, stamina, and intelligence to finish any program which you begin. "Smile Tall". You can develop a pleasing personality if you have a great enough desire. Remember, really great men and women are those who are natural, frank, and honest with everyone with whom they come in contact. "Live Tall". Turn your sparks of character into such a blaze that you will always do the right thing at the right time. "Stand Tall", "Think Tall", "Smile Tall", and "Live Tall" are the ingredients for a well-rounded life.

CLASS HISTORY

We began the school year of 1946 determined to make it an outstanding year from the standpoint of achievement in our classwork and for friendships.

We have deeply regretted the departure of some of our classmates who have left us from time to time. Our class now has an enrollment of thirty-four.

At the first of the year we elected our class officers. They are:

President.....Billy Hunt
Vice-President.....Jeanne Whitlow
Secretary and TreasurerLila Bradner

These officers have served us faithfully and have more than justified our faith in their ability.

At this time we also elected our gradeparents. They are Mr. H. L. Lunsford, gradefather and Mrs. H. M. Poteat, grade-mother. These gradeparents were popular and were elected by a large majority.

Most of our class participated in the recent basketball tournaments. Boys and girls who had never played before learned how to "handle the ball." A few members of our class are on the basketball teams.

The Junior Class's largest contribution to the field of sports is in baseball. The Junior boys furnish a large portion of the team.

Our class conducted a Popularity Contest under the direction of our class sponsor, Mrs. Witty. The merchants proved to be very cooperative; they readily sponsored their choice for the most popular girl when they were solicited by members of the class.

We are using a part of this money for a Junior-Senior Banquet. The surplus will remain in the treasury for our Senior activities next year.

We are looking forward to next year when we will be Seniors.

CLASS HISTORY

The class gathered together when school started with Mrs. Edna Mebane as its homeroom teacher.

We welcomed several new members at the beginning of the year. These were Anne Gatewood, Malloy Dix, Elise Coley, and Anne Handy.

We elected officers that were as follows:

President.....Charles H. Hooper

Vice President.....Anne Gatewood

Secretary.....Florence Shelton

We had a party at the school building in February. Although the weather was cold, those that came had a nice time eating, dancing, and talking.

The class disbanded for the year in May hoping to see each other again in the fall.

CLASS HISTORY

At the beginning of this school year forty nine students entered the freshman class. Some were timid, others were quite at home in the new surroundings. Everything was so queer and different to us. Where we had only one teacher before there was now a different teacher for every subject. It required some time at first for us to become accustomed to the change, but before long we were settled and ready for work. Out of that forty nine we lost; Mary Bradner, Stokley Davis, Shirley Hamlott, Louis Barnwell, Hazel Barts, and we gained Mary Rice who came to us from Cobb School. This leaves us with a total of forty five at the end of our freshman year.

The Freshman Home Economics Class with the teacher, Miss Webster, went to the State Fair in Raleigh in October. We have done many interesting things this year. Sewing and the study of foods have been our main projects. We are all looking forward to next year when we can take second year home economics.

Our class went out for sports in a big way this year. Some of our girls were substitutes on the basketball team, and we think that they are really good players. Our boys like baseball. Two are on our school team this year.

The freshman students are looking forward to next year when we can work with new and old teachers, and really take an active part in high school life.

Meeler was high scorer with 97 points. Morton was second with 54.

Following the end of the regular season an intramural tournament in which the varsity was excluded, the eighth grade won out in the finals by defeating the eleventh grade. The winners gained a berth in the finals by defeating the ninth grade and the eleventh by defeating the tenth grade. This tournament revealed some very bright prospects for the basketball team next year.

In its first two base ball games this year the E. Y. H. S. team was defeated 8-5 by Cobb and 23-4 by Yanceyville Knitting Mills.
